Jenny woke up with a big smile. Today was a very special day. She was going to get a new dog from the local animal shelter. Jenny jumped out of bed and ran downstairs. Her Mom and Dad were sitting at the breakfast table eating breakfast. "Get ready fast," Mom said. "We need to leave the house by 9:00." "I can't wait!" Jenny said happily. She ate her breakfast, brushed her teeth and got dressed. Jenny wondered, "What should I call my new puppy?"

Harry Potter

I) Read the text carefu.

Joanne Kathleen Rowling was born in Chipping Sodbury in 1965. She spent her childhood near Bristol. Two of the children she played with were called Potter, a name she liked very much. At school she wasn't good at sports, but she was very imaginative and very interested in languages and she wrote her first story when she was five or six years old. When she was nine years old, she had a school teacher who terrified her.

After school she studied French at Exeter University and spent one year in Paris. In 1992 she went to Portugal to teach English. Her marriage to a Portuguese TV journalist ended in divorce and she returned to Britain with her daughter. They settled in Edinburgh. When she was out of work and she spent her time writing .

The idea of telling the story of a boy who was a wizard came to her in 1990. She continued working on the story for several years and finished her novel when she was in Edinburgh. Then she sent it to many publishers who reject it. Finally in 1996, Bloomsbury Children's Book bought her novel Harry Potter and the philosopher's Stone. It was published in 1997 and immediately became a best-seller writing is now J.K Rowling's full time job.
